

JAIPUR - BIKANER - JAISALMER - JODHPUR TOUR

DAY	PROGRAMME
1	Arrive at Chokhi In the magical land of Rajasthan where heat shimmers like phantom waters, where things vanish behind veils of illusion, stands chokhi dhani, a village resort blend of traditional architecture and the lifestyle that depicts the ancient time, folk dance, music, food, puppets, and of course camel ride – optional to carve you in state culture.
2	The Pink city Jaipur captures the romance and beauty of the place. "Pink – city" The rose colored façade of city reflects the traditional Rajasthan culture. Visiting the Maharaja's museum and Jay Singhji astronomical observation and Hawa Mahal relax in the lobby, enjoy the style, the colour and charm of Rajasthan.
3	The city known as Desert town – wrapped in a thick scabby trees and distant temple towers – the place is famous for its mirror work palaces – the magnificent Junagadh fort.
4	The golden city emerging out of the great Indian Desert, holding to its ancient culture, the dreamy air about Jaisalmer has attracted visitors to this fort city with its barrel bellied towers and museum
5	The breath taking sand dunes, the long ribbon of the road cuts through the desert land, flat as far as the eye can see. decorated camels, the haveli's Bada Bagh and the rhythmic movement of dancers, shrill folk songs at the dine.
6	Nestling within the depth of the Thar Desert, is the stronghold of the second largest city - Jodhpur – an island of palaces, cordoned off from the desert by an immense wall, with eight gates facing different directions.
7	Flanked on the western edge of Thar its known as "Land of Death" because of its harsh desert climate. Mehregharh is one of Rajasthan's most impressive remnants of its turbulent and decadent past. Bishnoi handicrafts and the majestic forts. Meghrangarh & Chittaurgarh, Sheeshmahal & Umaid Bhavan adds to its prestige
8	Wrapped in the memory of camel brown land, its scrubby trees, the sand dunes, its longed. for home – Coming don't forget to check your palms, the golden sand still holds the corners of your fingers.	